Re: Black v. Cakor Restaurant, et al.,
Index No.: 22-CV-1447

Dear Hon. Judge Caproni:

This office is co-counsel in our representation of the Defendants in this action. I am writing to notify the court that my firm, as well co-counsel for Defendants, Josh Beldner of Tilton Beldner LLP will be filing a motion to withdraw as attorneys for Defendants in this case, pursuant to Local Rule 1.4, within the next few days. The details of our reasons for filing the motion to be relieved of counsel will be contained in the motion.

In light of the foregoing, we respectfully request that Defendants be granted an extension of time to file a response to Plaintiff's motion for a preliminary injunction and motion to amend the complaint, which was filed June 16, 2022 (Dkt. 18-22.), as well as time to file an answer to initial complaint, which is currently due on June 23, 2022. The current deadline for the filing of Defendants response to the motion is June 30, 2022. We respectfully request that the deadline for Defendants response to the motion be extended until July 29, 2022. Defendants further request that the time to answer the complaint be extended until July 29, 2022 as well. The reason for the request is that in the event this court grants our request to withdraw as counsel, Defendants will have time to obtain new counsel and to respond to Plaintiff's motion as well as to answer the complaint as they deem appropriate. This is Defendants' first request for an extension. We have conferred with Mr. Jason Mizrahi, counsel for Plaintiff, and Plaintiff does not take a position with respect to this request.

Thank you for your time and consideration regarding this matter.

Very truly yours,

/S/
Stuart Weinberger
